MINOT RUGGS ARE HOME FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Minot Rugg returned last week from a vacation trip to Cave City, Ore., Seattle, Wash., and Vancouver, B.C. Mrs. Rugg flew to Medford, Ore., on Sept. 31, where she was met by her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb. Mrs. Rugg was on hand to greet her granddaughter, born to the Lambs on Oct. 1. The little girl has been named Patricia Darlene. Mrs. Lamb is the former Sally Rugg. The couple have another child, a son, Travis.

Mr. Rugg then drove to Cave City to visit his daughter and to see the granddaughter. He and Mrs. Rugg then went on to Seattle, visiting Mrs. Rugg's uncle, and on to Vancouver.

PARENTS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pullen have returned to their home in Aberdeen, Miss., after spending a month here with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Almond and children, Danny, David and Laurie at their home 21971 Palos Verdes Blvd.

Jack Hadley, Ed Litaker, Mrs. Francis Goulart and one guest, Mrs. Shirley Brennan.

Club Invites Local Women To View Show

Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance is extending ticket sales to the fashion show Nov. 20 to all local women's clubs.

Fall fashions will be on display at the show, 7 p.m. at the Alondra Club, 16411 Prairie Ave., Lawndale.

The extensive sale of tickets is being conducted in order that all the women's clubs could get together for the occasion.

Tickets include the fashion show and dinner, according to Mrs. Harold Massie, president of the BPW.

Small table gifts will be given to each woman attending the showing of fashions provided by Moore's Dress Shop.

Particular style emphasis will be placed on winter clothing.

United Church Women Mark 'World Community Day' Here

United Church Women of the Torrance-Lomita Area held their World Community Day observance in the Wayside Methodist Church of Lomita on Friday, Nov. 1.

The business meeting opened at 10 a.m. with Mrs. J. B. Mosley, president in charge. Dates and meeting places for the coming year were set.

The annual meeting is to be at the Methodist Church in Torrance on Dec. 6. It will be a luncheon meeting followed by the installation of officers.

CHURCH GUILD TO MEET WEDNESDAY

Ladies Guild of Central Evangelical Church will hold its regular monthly meeting Wednesday, Nov. 13, in the guild hall at 2 p.m. Mrs. Alice Spehgar will be in charge. After the meeting refreshments will be served by the hostesses, Mmes. Grace Harper, Mary Julia Stanton, Marie Taylor and Ila Gilbert.

Mrs. C. P. Olsen, president of the WSCS, will be in charge. World Day of Prayer, Feb. 21, 1958, will be held at the First Christian Church with Mrs. Gordon Walker, chairman of the program.

May Fellowship Day, May 2, 1958, will be observed at the Episcopal Church with Mrs. A. C. Turner as chairman.

World Community Day, Nov. 6, 1958, will be held at the St. Marko Presbyterian Lomita Church, with Mrs. June Betz in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. E. J. Hosking and Mrs. Minnie Solomon gave reports of the Southern California-Nevada conference, which was held recently at Pacific Palisades. Mrs. Hosking's report dealt with the general work of the conference and Mrs. Solomon brought the highlights from a report on Egypt.

During the lunch hour the women of the hostess church served coffee to accompany the sack lunches which each brought.

The afternoon session opened at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Roy Fair, chairman, presiding. Participating in the program were Mrs. Harriett Tabet, Mrs. Frank Church, Mabel Malcolm, Mrs. Millicent Stambaugh, and Mrs. Dorothy Siveard.

Mrs. June Betz and Mrs. Jean Cramer were in charge of the music.

Parcels for peace, which were collected, consisted of warm clothing for men and boys and will go to refugees who are now in camps awaiting movement to the free world. The offering will be used in Africa, the Middle East, India, and Pakistan to promote self-help projects to increase dignity and freedom in the underdeveloped areas.

PARCELS FOR PEACE . . . When the United Church women, consisting of women from eight local churches, gathered last week in Lomita to observe World Community Day, contributions of foreign clothing were made for the destitute peoples of foreign countries. Sorting the clothing are Mrs. M. M. Schwab (left) and Mrs. G. W. Fair.

League to Study Water Resources

"Water Resource Development," a subject of great local interest, will be discussed by the League of Women Voters at November unit meetings. This is a national study item of the League, but local water problems will be touched on as well as the need for national coordination of conservation projects.

One of the units will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Allen Curtis, 206 Calle de Arboles. Other units will meet on Monday, Nov. 11, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Thomas Starr, 3705 Via Palomino, Palos Verdes Estates, and on Wednesday, Nov. 13, at 10 a.m., at the home of Mrs. Richard Blakeley, 2608 Via Ramon, Palos Verdes Estates.

Chairman of the study is Mrs. Harry Morgan of Palos Verdes Estates. Resource people assisting her include Mmes. G. J. Kleinhesselink and Louis Lanzer of Torrance; also Mmes. Albert Hook, Harry Johnson, Francis King, and Paul Wilson.

All interested women in this area are urged to attend one of the three unit meetings. A second set of meetings will be held later in the month to conclude the current water study.
